

BANKING
REGULATION AND SUPERVISION AGENCY

August 24, 2005

PRESS RELEASE

“Banking Sector Risk Evaluation Reports” in which loans, market, structural interest and liquidity risks experienced by the Turkish Banking system are evaluated and which have been published in Intranet of our Agency since June 10, 2004 are now introduced for public access on Internet. The first issue of the said Report was prepared by taking the data of December 2003-March 2004 period into consideration and the studies on the fourth issue thereof relating to the evaluation of risks faced by the banking system by December 2005-June 2005 period is still continuing and following its completion, it will be available on our official web site (www.bddk.org.tr).