

BANKING
REGULATION AND SUPERVISION
AGENCY

PRESS RELEASE

Number: 2007/5

November 5, 2007

ELECTRONIC FRAUD WARNING

In a website prepared by using the logo of our Agency, it was determined that the information concerning bank cards, credit cards and identity cards belonging to various banks was attempted to be stolen by using the text page as follows;

"IMPORTANT WARNING: Pursuant to the Article 40 titled "Insurance" of the Banking Law dated October 18, 2007 Nr. 4389 " bank accounts henceforth shall be insured by the affiliated banks depending on the demand, customer damages shall be met in case of any problem". Please, for your safety, fill in the insurance form by selecting your bank from the list below and filling out the form or going to the head office of the bank you work at..."

As our Agency has no relation with the said web-site, we call attention yet again to the fact that it should not be accredited to such web-sites and the forms in which personal information is required should never be filled in.