

BANKING
REGULATION AND SUPERVISION
AGENCY

PRESS RELEASE

Number: 2010/21

May 28, 2010

Fraud made by Telephone

It's received information concerning the fact that it's been demanding credit card and personal information of a lot of people by the telephone under the pretext of studies relating to returning credit card fees and commissions by person declaring that they call on behalf of our Agency.

As our Agency has no relation with any of the people thereof in no circumstance relating to the among mentioned respect, in respect of preventing a possible grievance in future, it is obligatory to be sensitive ,in respects of credit cards and personal information, by those concerned.